

Course Overview

This is a two-day, hands-on intensive workshop. Participants will learn compensatory hands-on techniques for tonic bite, slow oral transit, tongue thrust, and gag. The participants will practice over 50 specific intervention strategies for improving facial muscle function for eating and speech. Additional topics of discussion may include: goal writing, diet texture progression, tube to oral issues, adaptive mealtime utensils, oral hygiene issues, medication administration issues, oral function for individuals with trachs, facilitating improved articulation through oral motor techniques, research issues, videofluoroscopy issues for motorically involved individuals, and additional topics of importance as determined by the participants.

Course Objectives:

Upon completion Participants will be able to:

- 1) Demonstrate assessment battery for determining orofacial movement patterns using the Beckman protocol.
- 2) Demonstrate compensatory handling techniques.
- 3) Demonstrate oral motor interventions and treatment techniques.
- 4) Recognize how to screen for potential referral candidates.
- 5) Identify the results of the techniques discussed.

Preparation:

You will be working with the fragile tissues of the oral area; for safety reasons, therapeutic nail length is a must. Attendees are asked to bring a large handheld mirror. A DVD of a case study is welcomed for discussion.

Or email info@beckmanoralmotor.com

Parking:

Complimentary parking is available at the North
Visitors Parking Ramp (Ramp 7) at 221
Michigan Street NE which is next to the Cook Institute.

Lunch:

Depending on the pace of the course, we may need to shorten lunch to 30 minutes; consider bringing your lunch with you. There are also 3 locations in the Spectrum Health Hospital, which is across the street from the Cook Institute. If we have an hour for lunch you may want to dine at one of the several nearby eateries. A handout will be available for you at check-in.

Attire:

Bring a sweater or light jacket just in case
you find the conference room is chilly.
Wear comfortable clothes and shoes.

Helpful Tips:

You will be working with the fragile tissues of the oral area. For safety reasons, therapeutic nail length is a must.

A small free-standing mirror or hand-held mirror is great for the hands-on exercises.
